

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1887.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1889.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

THE LOUISVILLE WAY.
This is a world of strife and sin.
Although each voter does his best,
We put our little ballot in;
The man who counts 'em does the rest.

THE LEDGER delights in obliging its friends. It prints "Help Wanted," "Situations Wanted," "Lost" and "Found" notices free of charge; and as it costs you nothing for such service, don't you think it is as little as you can do to write the copy and either bring or send it to the office?

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

Mrs. Pauline Schwartz is very ill at her home in West Third street.

Mr. Robert K. Allison has accepted a position with the National Cash Register at Dayton, O.

George Linkin, who was in the shoe business in Mt. Sterling for many years and recently died there, told a man on his deathbed that his name was Patrick McMurray, and that in his youth, twenty-five years ago, he had killed in Detroit a man who had betrayed his (McMurray's) fiancée.

Mr. J. C. Pecor, the Second Street Druggist, is about through with his fall house cleaning at his place of business, and there is such a pleasing change in the surroundings you will hardly recognize it as the same place. Good taste in the general arrangement, added to the artistic work of the painter and paper hanger, has wrought wonders.

Our stock of Mounted Diamonds is the largest in the city, comprising the very latest mountings. See our new Cluster Rings; nothing ever seen here like them; have the effect of a large sapphire. Our combination rings are new and beautiful—diamonds with ruby, emerald, sapphire, pearl and opals, all the latest combinations. We are leaders in diamond goods.
P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

WILL CONTEST SEAT

Judge Cole of Greenup Will Ask Legislature to Decide Case

Having been denied an injunction to compel the Election Board to give him the certificate, Judge William T. Cole, candidate for Representative from Greenup county, will take his claim to the Legislature.

The official count shows that Cole, Democrat, received 1,233 votes; Charles W. G. Hauah, 1,285; and B. F. Bennett, 86 votes.

The certificate of election was given to Hauah, but Cole contends that a recount would show his election by four votes, and he will now take the matter to the Legislature.

Colonel B. F. Bennett will also contest the election of Hauah on the ground of fraud, making a unique proceeding of two men contesting for the same office.

DRANK CARBOLIC ACID

Suicide of a Former Maysville Man at Urbana, O.

Friday Major Thomas J. Chenoweth received in his mail a letter dated Urbana, O., from J. W. Amptreter, Coroner of Champaign county, containing a photograph of a dead man lying in a coffin.

The letter went on to say that he had committed suicide at that place by drinking carbolic acid, and that the label on the bottle contained the name of T. J. Chenoweth, Druggist, Maysville, Ky.

The dead man is described as being about 65 years old, five feet ten inches, gray hair and mustache, and fairly well dressed.

Quite a number here who have seen the picture recognize the features as those of A. G. Beechman, who for several years was employed as a harness maker at George Schroeder's Factory in Sutton street.

Beechman was in the city some three or four weeks ago taking orders for a Cincinnati wine house. He is said to have been of a morose temperament, and not of a sociable disposition.

Mr. Schroeder received a letter last week from his wife, importing him to take him back, saying she was fearful something dreadful would happen.

Taken altogether it is more than likely that the remains are those of A. G. Beechman.

SUDDENLY CALLED

Henry H. Henney Dropped Dead Yesterday at South Ripley

Mr. Henry H. Henney of Aberdeen dropped dead yesterday morning in the Depot at South Ripley while waiting for the 9:55 o'clock C. and O. Eastbound train to take passage for this city.

The deceased and his wife were returning from Georgetown, O., where they had been attending to some legal business for their grandson.

When death overtook him he was conversing with Miss Oma Chambers, who has charge of a school near Ewing, but on account of an epidemic in that neighborhood, is visiting at her home in Ohio.

He had just remarked to Miss Chambers that he was not feeling well, when he was stricken and died instantly.

The body, accompanied by the grief-stricken wife, was brought to this city and transferred to his late home in Aberdeen.

Mr. Henney was born in Pennsylvania and would have been 65 years old had he lived until January 13th, 1906.

He lived for 40 years at North Liberty, O., where he ran a blacksmith shop and conducted a hotel.

Having retired from business, he and his family took up their residence in Aberdeen two years ago.

He was a Veteran of the Civil War, having served in the Tenth Kentucky Cavalry.

Besides a wife he leaves three children. He was highly respected and a Christian gentleman.

He will be buried at Cherry Fork, O.

Do you want the best Real Estate Agency in the state located in Maysville? If so help me to make mine such. Nothing will do more to develop our city than a first-class, all-round, wide-awake, up-to-date real estate dealer. Will you give me your support and business?
JOHN DULEY.

MORRISSEY'S IRELAND.

Morrissey's $5,000 moving scenic production of Ireland combined with the Hibernian Troubadours and select vaudeville will be at the Washington Opera-house tonight. The entertainment may be said to be in a class by itself, presenting a great moving tableau of Erin, illustrating with astounding realistic effect a tour throughout the Emerald Isle.

The battleship Kentucky holds the record for an American warship for having sent a message the longest distance by wireless telegraph, according to the reports received at the Bureau of Equipment of the Navy Department. The Kentucky, while lying in Hampton Roads, sent a message to the wireless station at Beaufort, S. C., a distance of 500 miles.

It will wash and not rub off.

This complexion all envy me.

It's no secret, so I'll tell:

FURS You WANT.

If you are one of the many who want furs this winter we suggest your buying here for three reasons: First, the stock is big and varied enough to make selection easy.

Second, every piece found entrance here only after rigid inspection for any defects in the fur, the coloring, the workmanship.

Third, we can save you money on your purchase, as we bought our furs very cheap this season and as we bought, we'll sell.

Here are some generalizations to consider until you come here for details—

Boas $2 1/2 to $25.
Scarfs $1 to $15.
Tie Scarfs $5.
Bishop Scarfs $10.
Fur lined Coats $25, $39.

Barrel Muffs to match anything quoted above $5 to $10.

WOMEN'S $1 GLOVES.

Rarer values in Women's Gloves have never been offered. Handsomely made of soft pliable kid, two-clasp or two-button, in tan, mode, beaver, brown, gray, black, white—all the proper shades for Fall and Winter. Gauntlet Driving Gloves $1. Mannish Weltered Gloves $1.

EMBROIDERY REMNANTS.

A round-up of many short pieces in the best selling patterns. Each piece ticketed with the number of yards it contains and its new price. Sold by the piece at the rate of 3c to 10c yard instead of 5c to 15c yard.

BRONCHITIS

Druggist John C. Pecor Tells the People Quickest Means to Cure It.

Asked one day in his store the question, "What is good for bronchitis?" Mr. Pecor, our well known druggist, answered, "For years old fashioned cod liver oil has been known to possess the most remarkable curative and healing properties for throat, bronchial and lung troubles of anything known to medicine, but on account of the grease which enveloped its curative principles, it has been impossible for many people to take enough of it into their systems to combat a thoroughly settled disease without clogging the system and upsetting the stomach."

"Now, however," continued Mr. Pecor, "we have Vinol, which contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cod's livers without a drop of oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work, and physicians agree that it is the greatest cure for all throat, bronchial and lung troubles known to medicine."

"Miss Anna Ray writes us that after suffering for five years with bronchitis, and trying all kinds of medicines without relief, Vinol cured her, and we have hundreds of just such letters."

"We wish every person suffering from chronic colds, coughs, bronchitis, and every aged, weak, or convalescent person who needs a healing, strength-creating and blood-making tonic would try Vinol on our guarantee to return the purchase money if it fails." JOHN C. PECOR, Druggist.

Capture of Colored Man Charged With a Serious Offense

Saturday night Henry Taylor, aged between 40 and 50, a colored brute, was frustrated while in the act of committing a rape on the six-year-old daughter of Belle Carr, colored, who lives in Cherry alley in the rear of the Kentucky Hotel. Taylor made his escape from the house and was making his way for the country when overtaken and captured by Dudley Allen, Sam Lindsey, Oscar Carr and Fred Payne, colored, who started in pursuit on hearing of the dastardly attempt.

He was brought back to this city and turned over to Officer Wallace who placed him in Jail. He will have an examining trial today before Judge Whitaker.

HIGHEST PRAISE.

Some Maysville Citizens Grow Enthusiastic on the Subject.

The praise of the public is merit's just reward. Nothing in modern times has received the praise accorded "The Little Conqueror."

Of some kinds of praise we are skeptical. We doubt the praise of strangers. The highest praise for Maysville public is hearty expression from Maysville people. Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed in Maysville. No better proof of merit can be had. Here's a case of it. We have plenty more like it.

James D. Tolle, clerk at Wood Bros. meat market, and living at 117 Short street, Maysville, Ky., says—

"I was troubled a great deal for some time with constant heavy pain in the small of my back and over the kidneys. At times it was so bad that I could not stoop to sit down or get up without much difficulty. The action of the kidneys was noticeably weakened and passages of the secretions were too frequent, and there was a scalding burning sensation at times. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I began using them and finding great benefit, continued the treatment until I had taken one or two boxes more and was thoroughly cured of all my troubles. I have never had the least bit of suffering from my back or kidneys since. I give all the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills and feel justified in strongly recommending them to others."

Plenty more proof like this from Maysville people. Call at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore and ask what their customers report. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

GOOD CONGREGATIONS.

The meetings at the First Baptist Church were well attended yesterday. The coming of such a number each day this week, with a desire to help and be helped, would mean a great blessing to all. This is possible if all who came yesterday will make a little sacrifice of time and their own pleasure. Others who had duties in their own regular places of worship can assist this week by prayer and presence, as some did last week. Meetings daily, with preaching by Pastor-Evangelist Clark of Paris, at 2:30 and 7 p. m. Come.

If you are troubled with dizzy spells, headache, indigestion, constipation, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well and keep you well. If it fails get your money back; that's fair. 35 cents. J. J. Wood & Son.

MUST STAND BY THE PRESIDENT

CINCINNATI TIMES-STAR.

Republicans who are restive under President Roosevelt's anti-trust activities and his railroad rate program, should take a long look ahead, and think how easy it might be, by disregarding popular demands, to build up a Hearst party, from one end of the country to the other. No one could follow the returns last night, comparing them with those of a year ago, without realizing that the Roosevelt vote was an altogether different thing from the Republican vote, so greatly did his personal strength exceed that of the party.—"Lincoln" in The Boston Transcript.

The declarations of so competent an observer of political events must be given heed. "It is hard to exaggerate from the National point of view," continues Lincoln, "Mr. Hearst's accomplishment in polling 225,000 votes in New York City. He had no party, no historic organization to which votes went from habit or family traditions. Every individual had to be won, as much as for Jerome, in his peculiar fight. The proportions of his vote reveal the material latent in this country for a great anti-capitalistic uprising of some sort, whenever properly offered and led. The extraordinary prosperity which the country is now enjoying does not allay social unrest caused by the insurance revelations of the last summer, and the notion, now widely disseminated through the voting masses, that the ordinary agencies of politics are in alliance with the great combinations of wealth. This is responsible for Hearst's popular hold. It will aid every radical from this time forth. Tom Johnson's sweeping victory in Cleveland, and Bandmaster Schmitz's in San Francisco point in the same direction."

It is inconceivable that either the personality or the principles of Hearst has won even a tithe of the vote which he secured. The vote for such a man and one of such principles is distinctively a vote of protest—the recording by the people of their disapproval of conditions, varied as well as general, and isolated in their character and perhaps but crudely comprehended. The only danger in such unrest lies in the fact that, having no other form in which to express itself, it should accrue to the benefit of such a character and of such politics.

The readjustment of conditions properly and effectively can alone come through the Republican party, the only party fit to govern. Conditions must be readjusted, not radically, not by visionaries, not by fanaticism, but by clear-headed, level-thinking, practical men, men who can adjust government and society in accordance with things as they are, and who are not wrapped up in constructing a society for ideal people out of their own grey matter, men who recognize that the ideal can only be found in the real.

The political thought of the day is in a fluid state; it needs but some sharp blow to crystallize it. It must not be precipitated upon the odious lunacies of Hearstism and Johnsonism. Fortunately for Republicanism and the country, the prevention of this disaster is possible. There is one man who "stands as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land." More than ever is it imperative that Republicans stand by the President; more than ever is it necessary that Republicans follow the safe, sane and conservative guideposts he has planted. Democracy in the shape of Hearstism and Johnsonism can be met in but one way—and that is the way Theodore Roosevelt has marked.

During a driving snowstorm a German torpedo boat collided with a cruiser, sank and carried down 33 of her crew.

BAD BLOOD

"I had trouble with my bowels which made my blood impure. My face was covered with pimples which no external remedy could remove. I tried your Cascarets and great was my joy when the pimples disappeared after a month's steady use. I have recommended them to all my friends and quite a few have found relief."
